Generational Overview

Silent Generation (Born 1925-1945)

Youth today are waiting for the hand of fate to fall on its shoulders, meanwhile working fairly hard and saying almost nothing. The most startling fact about the younger generation is its silence. With some rare exceptions, youth are nowhere near the rostrum. By comparison with the Flaming Youth of their fathers & mothers, today's younger generation is a still, small flame. It does not issue manifestoes, make speeches or carry posters. It has been called the “Silent Generation”.
- Time Magazine, 1951

GENERATIONAL CROSSROADS
When X, Y, & Boomers Collide!

Generational Overview
Baby Boomers (Born 1946-1964)

“We stand today on the edge of a new frontier – the frontier of the 1960s, a frontier of unknown opportunities and perils, a frontier of unfulfilled hopes and threats. The new frontier of which I speak is not a set of promises – it is a set of challenges.”
- John F. Kennedy, 1959

Generational Overview
Generation X (Born 1965-1981)

“There a generation of teenagers who sleep together before they are married, were not taught to believe in God as much, dislike the Queen and don’t respect parents.
-Woman’s Own Magazine - 1964

“There’s an ‘X’ category of people who want to hop off the merry-go-round of status, money, and social climbing that so often frames modern existence”
- Paul Frissel, “Class” - 1983

Closing Words

There was no respect for youth when I was young, and now that I am old, there is no respect for age - I missed it coming and going. - J.B. Priestly

Every generation imagines itself to be more intelligent than the one that went before it, and wiser than the one that comes after it. - George Orwell

That which seems the height of absurdity in one generation often becomes the height of wisdom in another. - Adlai Stevenson

First we are children to our parents, then parents to our children, then parents to our parents, then children to our children. - Milton Greenblat

It’s hard for me to get used to these changing times. I can remember when the air was clean and sex was dirty. - George Burns
