EDUC 3100 DIFFERENTIATED CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION (3 cr. hrs.)

discussion of the value of differentiated instruction. This course focuses on differentiating strategies to diagnose learner needs, adapt and modify curriculum materials, plan and implement instruction, develop assignments, and evaluate learning outcomes.

Mission Statement
The mission of the College of Education and Human Development is to improve teaching and leadership, advance lifelong learning and promote health and wellness through enhanced community partnerships. The unit’s purpose is to prepare reflective practitioners who develop, implement, and evaluate effective education and human development programs/services through a program of study grounded in the interaction of theory, practice, and research.

GOAL
To familiarize teachers with methods of differentiation designed: to diagnose learner needs, adapt and modify curricular materials, plan and implement differentiated instruction, develop assignments, and evaluate learning outcomes.

Conceptual Framework:
The conceptual framework, the theory-practice-research interaction model, permeates the programs preparing candidates for professional roles in school settings. As candidates progress through their professional studies, they are introduced to formal theories and concepts that are validated by research, which along with their personally held beliefs and assumptions, inform their professional practice. The roles and responsibilities set out the broad domains for developing competence of teacher candidates viewed through the lens of the theory-practice-research interaction model. As candidates engage in various clinical and field experiences included in their program of study, observation and study of professional practices inform and refine the educational theories and concepts they construct. Our goal is to have our candidates internalize the theory-practice-research interaction model, as they develop into reflective practitioners constantly reassessing the educational theories, beliefs, and assumptions they embrace.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS

Course Requirements:

I. Attendance/participation: Much of the value in the course lies in our class discussions, interactive lessons and reflections. Therefore, attendance and active participation are required. Class discussion is the primary vehicle for communication within this community of inquiry. Your participation will be evaluated on the following components: attendance, contribution to in-class and ungraded activities.

Teacher candidates are expected to attend all classes regularly and punctually. A teacher candidate who is not present in class is marked absent. You are responsible for material missed during your absence and encouraged to pair with another student to assist in this matter and collect class handouts. Detailed instructions for all assignments will be delivered during class time.

II. LiveText: You will be expected to log on to LiveText regularly to check on Assignments and Announcements. Assignments will be graded on LiveText.

III. ASSIGNMENTS

Performance-based Assignments and Portfolio Assessment

Definition of Portfolio Assessment
Portfolio assessment is the purposeful collection of student work that demonstrates students’ efforts, progress, and achievement in a given area.

Purpose of the Portfolio
The purpose of the portfolio is to document authentic experiences that incorporate theory/practice interaction with regard to differentiated curriculum and instruction.

I. Portfolio Products

A. Field Experience: Student Profile and Professional Conference: You will develop a student profile based on a student and a clearly identified area for improvement or enhancement. You will investigate research-based interventions for this student http://www2.ed.gov/nclb/methods/whatworks/edpicks.jhtml http://aim.cast.org/. IRIS modules: http://iris.peabody.vanderbilt.edu/ebp_summaries/ that you will discuss with a peer in class. You will then arrange an interview with a professional to discuss your suggestions and generate other ideas for interventions. A detailed description of this assignment will be disseminated and discussed in class.

You may decide to participate in a tutoring program where collaboration with a professional and implementation of an instructional practice can take place. Examples of programs include:
- STAIR: Contact www.stairnola.org
- Project Pass: Upward Bound:
- The NET @ Clark

Candidates are required to submit this assignment on Live Text.

This assignment aligns with the conceptual framework developed by the College of Education and Human Development. The experiences promote student’s engagement in the following roles/responsibilities:
- Effective teachers manage classroom contexts and environments.
- Effective teachers design curriculum and instruction.
- Effective teachers deliver instruction and assess learning.
- Effective teachers participate in professional responsibilities.

B. Modified Unit Plan: You will work with one or two other teacher candidates to complete a modified unit plan. We will spend class time discussing each component of the unit plan, followed by class time to begin the assignment, and class time to debrief and gather feedback from peers. Components of the plan include:
- Unit Common Core Standards, objectives, & graphic organizer
- Assessments: teacher made test (modifications for diverse learners), pre and post assessments, rubric for project
- Activities based on Blooms’ Taxonomy, Gardner’s Multiple Intelligences, and Tiered Assignments
- An individual reflection discussing the process of developing a modified unit.
C. Class Presentation: You will develop an interactive presentation on a designated topic. A detailed assignment will be discussed in class.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

I. Portfolio Products
   A. Field Experience: Profile & Conference 25%
   B. Unit and Lesson Activities 35%
   C. Chapter quizzes 10%
   D. Presentation 15%
