Course will focus on water and wastewater treatment plant design including comparisons of alternate treatment processes. Graduate students enrolled in 5323 must carry out additional work to earn graduate credit.

PREREQUISITES

ENCE 3323 or ENCE 3326/3327 Introduction to Environmental Engineering.

TEXTBOOKS AND OTHER MATERIAL

2. Introduction to Environmental Engineering, by M. L. Davis and D. Cornwell (Recommended). This is the ENCE 3326/3327 textbook.

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Students who satisfactorily complete this course will be able to:

1. Apply chemical reaction engineering principles to select the most appropriate reactor type for water and wastewater treatment depending on the respective reaction kinetics.
2. Explain the physical, chemical and biological processes taking place in water and wastewater treatment plants.
3. Solve problems related to unit performance in conventional water and wastewater treatment plants.
4. Prepare a preliminary design of conventional water and wastewater treatment plants, and organize the results in a project report.
5. Work as team members and follow a prescribed work plan.

CRITERIA FOR GRADING, GRADING STANDARDS

There will be three exams (two mid-term tests and the final exam, each with the same weight), worth 70 percent of the grade, four home-works, worth 10 percent, and a project, worth 20 percent of the grade. The project will be prepared by groups of three students, and will be developed through the semester.

The final letter grade is computed as follows: The overall numerical grade will be divided by the highest score in class, so that the best possible normalized score will be 100 points. If the normalized score is more than 90 points the grade will be an A; from 80 - 89, the grade will be a B; from 70 – 79, the grade will be a C; from 60 - 69, D; below 60, F.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance is required. If you cannot attend class for some reason, call the instructor or the Engineering administrative assistant and explain why.
ACADEMIC DISHONESTY POLICY

Students are expected to conduct themselves according to the principles of academic integrity as defined in the statement on Academic Dishonesty in the UNO Student Code of Conduct. Any student or group found to have committed an act of academic dishonesty shall have their case turned over to the Office of Student Accountability and Advocacy for disciplinary action, which may result in penalties as severe as indefinite suspension from the University. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to: cheating, plagiarism, tampering with academic records and examinations, falsifying identity, fabrication, or misrepresentation, and being an accessory to an act of academic dishonesty. Not actively participating in the activities of your project group falls in the category of fabrication or misrepresentation, and therefore, it will be considered academic dishonesty.

The new policy on Academic Dishonesty is available online at: http://www.studentaffairs.uno.edu/studentpolicies/policymanual/academic_dishonesty.cfm

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

It is University policy to provide, on a flexible and individualized basis, reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in course activities or to meet course requirements. Students who seek accommodations for disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services prior to discussing their individual needs for accommodation with their instructors.

EXTRA WORK FOR RECEIVING GRADUATE CREDIT IN 5000-LEVEL CLASSES

Students enrolled in ENCE 5323 will be responsible for the material contained in Chapters 12 (Membrane Filtration) and 26 (Tertiary Treatment) of the textbook. Special assignments, and questions and problems dealing with these two chapters will be given in the final exam.

Withdrawal Policy – Undergraduate only
Students are responsible for initiating action to resign from the University (withdraw from all courses) or from a course on or before dates indicated in the current Important dates calendar. Students who fail to resign by the published final date for such action will be retained on the class rolls even though they may be absent for the remainder of the semester and be graded as if they were in attendance. Failure to attend classes does not constitute a resignation. Check the Register’s website, http://www.registrar.uno.edu. Please consult The Bulletin for charges associated with dropping and adding courses.

Incomplete Policy – Undergraduate only
The grade of I means incomplete and is given for work of passing quality but which, because of circumstances beyond the student’s control, is not complete. The issuance of the grade of I is at the discretion of the faculty member teaching the course. For all graduate and undergraduate students, a grade of I becomes a grade of F if it is not converted before the deadline for adding courses for credit (as printed in the Important Dates Calendar) of the next regular semester including summer semester.

Repeat Policy
When a student is permitted to repeat a course for credit, the last grade earned shall be the one which determines course acceptability for degree credit. A student who has earned a C or better in a course may not repeat that course unless, (1) the catalog description indicates that the course may be repeated for credit, or (2) the student’s Dean gives prior approval for documented extenuating circumstances.
