GRADUATE STUDENT REQUIREMENTS

In addition to meeting the undergraduate requirements for readings and exams and paper 1, graduate students will produce an annotated bibliography of at least 8 items to accompany paper 2 and a longer paper (2500-3000 words), which must be on the same topic as the annotated bibliography. Graduate students must confer with me about paper topics before submitting their annotated bibliography.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- Identify the ways in which the world of 18th century England is both similar to and different from ours
- Place individual texts within the larger movements and genres of the period
- Effectively employ the appropriate databases and other scholarly resources necessary for the advanced study of British literature
- Join the professional discourse that characterizes academic work in our profession by surveying and then incorporating extant scholarship within their own essays

ATTENDANCE

Attendance is required. Because the course is almost exclusively discussion, class members play a vital role in generating the ideas and analyses of the course. You cannot make up for missing this discussion merely by reading the texts or another student's notes. You have to be here to make our explorations of these texts succeed; you owe it to yourself and to the rest of us. Participation and attendance will determine your final grade if your exams and papers leave you on the borderline.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is fundamental to the process of learning and to the evaluating of academic performance. Academic dishonesty (cheating on tests, claiming the work of others as your own) will not be tolerated. Refer to the UNO Judicial Code for further definitions of academic dishonesty and the penalties for dishonesty.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students who qualify for services will receive the academic modifications for which they are legally entitled. It is the responsibility of the student to register with the Office of Disability Services (UC 260) each semester and follow their procedures for obtaining assistance.
