PURPOSE OF THE COURSE AND GENERAL COMMENTS:
The goal of any language study is communicative competence and increased awareness of and respect for cultural diversity. This course is designed to develop and enhance competence in the four skill areas of listening, speaking, reading and writing. Grammatical structures are learned in context; they are immediately used in order to communicate with the entire class or in groups of two or three. Skills are built up through carrying on genuine conversations in class, through short oral and written compositions. This class is held in French, except for brief grammatical explanations.

REQUIRED TEXTS:
1. Textbook, Vis-à-vis Beginning French, Author: Amon, Edition: 6th, Year Published: 2015. ISBN: 9781260000000. We will cover chapters 1-4. There are copies of the textbook on 3-hour permanent reserve at the front desk of the UNO library. Simply show your student ID to the librarian, and you may scan or make photocopies. This textbook is used for 4 semesters of French courses at UNO, from F1001 to F2002. You have several options: scan the pages at the library, purchase the textbook from the UNO bookstore, purchase the textbook on amazon.com or another on-line vendor, or purchase the digital version of the textbook. In any case, you need to have some version of the textbook with you in class every day.

2. Vis-à-vis, Mc-Graw Hill Connect French and Learn Smart online workbook via: http://connect.mheducation.com. Assignments will be posted here, and they are due the day of each exam.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:
1. Proficiency in Reading and Writing
2. Proficiency in Speaking and Listening
3. Proficiency in History and Culture
ATTENDANCE POLICY:
The following was adopted by the Foreign Language Faculty in September 2002: The class participation grade (in this case 15% of your final grade), will be a D or an F, depending on the level of delinquency, if the student has had more than five (5) unexcused absences in Monday, Wednesday, and Friday classes.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE COURSE

1. Active participation in class work, including presence, volunteering for oral exercises in class, etc.

2. Online Homework through Mc-Graw Hill Connect French and LearnSmart. These assignments will be opened up gradually as we progress through the course and will remain open until the end of the semester; however, it is STRONGLY advised that you do them as they open up and not to wait until the last minute to do them.

3. Three (3) tests (Examens) one of which will be the Mid-Term Exam (L'Examen de Mi-semester). All of our tests will be cumulative to some degree. The first test will cover chapter 1. The Mid-Term will be cumulative over chapters 1 and 2. The third test will emphasize chapter 3 and the final will cover all four chapters but will be focused on chapter 4.

4. The Final Exam (L'examen Final) will include the "Exit Test" which is a multiple-choice scantron test given from the Foreign Language Department and is computer graded. It is administered for SACS Accreditation purposes. Its score will be worth 25% of the final exam grade. The Exit Test will be given during the Final Exam.

NOTE: The Final Exam will be given on Final Exam will be held at our regular classroom LA 120 on FRIDAY, December 11 10:00 A.M.-12:00 NOON

GRADING:

Your final grade will be based on:
Class attendance and participation: 15%
Online workbook assignments 15%
Quizzes/Projects 10%
Test 1: 10%
Mid-Term 15%
Test 3 10%
Final Exam: 25%

GRADING SCALE:

90-100% = A
80 - 89% = B
70 - 79% = C
60 - 69% = D
59% - = F
MOODLE:
Once you are enrolled in this course, you are also automatically enrolled in Moodle, the UNO course management system linked to the UNO website. You are required to have computer access to the UNO website and to Moodle. If you do not have your username and password to allow you access, contact the HELP DESK in the University Computing Center. Note: E-mail communications between students and instructors must be done via your UNO e-mail account.

Mc-Graw Hill Connect and LearnSmart is a course management system specific to your textbook that offers an online workbook and lab manual with audio, assignment activities, enrichment video, an interactive voice board, and online tutoring. Assignments included here will be worth 15 percent of your total grade.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:
The University of New Orleans (UNO) is committed to providing for the needs of enrolled or admitted students who have disabilities under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA). In general, University policy calls for reasonable accommodations to be made for students with documented disabilities on an individualized and flexible basis. It is the responsibility of students, however, to seek available assistance at the University and to make their needs known.

For more information, please contact the Office of Disability Services.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:
Academic integrity is fundamental to the process of learning and evaluating academic performance. Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the following: cheating, plagiarism, tampering with academic records and examinations, falsifying identity, and being an accessory to acts of academic dishonesty. Refer to the UNO Judicial Code for further information. The Code is available in your student handbook or online at www.uno.edu/~stlf/policy%20Manual/judicial_code_pt2.htm.
CLASSROOM CONDUCT:
Please be in class on time. Distracting interruptions are inconsiderate, disrespectful, and time wasting. There is no excuse for repeatedly arriving late. Parking is often a hassle; allow enough time for it. Please turn off cell phones before class begins or put them on vibrate. If you have to receive an emergency call, please leave the classroom. Please refrain from texting, tweeting, or listening to your iPod during class. If you engage in these activities at all, you will be counted as absent from class that day.

MAKE-UPS:
Make-up tests will only be granted with a valid doctor’s excuse or in case of an extreme emergency. It is the student’s responsibility to contact the professor and to make arrangements with her to take the make-up within one day of the original test. If the student has a valid excuse for missing the test but cannot take a make-up within one day (due to hospitalization, for instance), his/her percentage score on the final examination will be substituted for the score on the missed test. Note: the student has one calendar week to turn in a doctor’s excuse to the professor.

ENCOURAGEMENT:
If you are interested in learning French, you need to practice:
1. active listening and awareness
2. curiosity - feel free to ask questions to clarify material!
3. risk-taking - do not feel foolish. We are here to learn!
4. repetition - use expressions over and over again in a variety of contexts; re-read a passage many times; correct written assignments
5. imitation - feel free to echo aloud French speech patterns in class and at home
6. cultivating the will to overcome obstacles. Instead of saying, “This is hard. I give up,” say, “This is challenging.”
7. daily study skills - study a little bit every day. The cramming method of studying is especially ineffective when learning a foreign language.
