6. Classroom Policies

- Attendance will be taken every class to ensure that students are keeping up with the course work.
- Extra Credit Assignments are not available and will not be necessary as long as the student keeps up with their course work.
- Both cheating and plagiarism are against the student code and will not be tolerated because it is important that we maintain academic integrity.
- Please refrain from Texting during class because it is a disruption to the class and the teacher. If you have an emergency, please step outside the classroom.
- Cell phones must be off or on silent (not vibrate) so there are no disruptions during class.
7. College Policies

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

It is university policy to provide, on a flexible and individualized basis, reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in course activities or to meet course requirements. Students with disabilities are responsible for registering with the Office of Disability Services (UC 260) each semester and following their procedures for obtaining assistance. After registering with the ODS, students with disabilities are encouraged to contact their instructors to discuss their individual needs for accommodations.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is fundamental to the process of learning and evaluating academic performance. Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the following: cheating, plagiarism, tampering with academic records and examinations, falsifying identity, and being an accessory to act of academic dishonesty. Refer to the Student Judicial Code for more information.

8. Syllabus Disclaimer

This syllabus is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor. The course goals, objectives and student competencies do not change.
