COURSE DESCRIPTION:
Cultural Diversity on Film and Stage
1. The student will have the opportunity to experience in their home and in the movie theatre the impact that society has on film and theatre
2. The student will also have the opportunity to view and study how cultural diversity has shaped and impacted the film and theatre industry

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES:
A.
1. To discuss and present in writing: cultural diversity issues in a manner that is respectful to oneself and to others.
2. To enhance the student's knowledge of diversity in today's society and how this diversity flows into film and stage
3. To develop the student's understanding of cultural diversity and, therefore, develop an appreciation for differences that exist in our society
4. To study the cultural diversity of our society's film venues and/or theatre venues
5. To enable the student to study and identify the people who are present on film and stage and be able to understand their cultural backgrounds
6. To present to the student the opportunity to view film or theatre presentations that represent cultural diversity
EXPLANATION OF COURSE

Cultural Diversity encompasses the cultural differences that exist between people such as:

Language, dress and traditions, and the way societies organize themselves, their conception of morality and religion, and the way they interact with the environment.

When trying to understand what cultural diversity involves, do not limit your mind to one group of people, or one type of behavior. When thinking of diversity, expand your mind to thinking of people as individuals within a group.

Example: A person can be defined as of the Italian culture, who is part of the upper class (sub-culture), who works in a modern fashion company that dresses a popular rock star (pop-culture). All of the above describes cultural diversity. It embraces all that makes up a person and their behavior, life style, beliefs.

You can take any person and assign them with what they do, where they live, how they dress, what their political party is, and how they go through life. At the end you can see the diversity in our society.

This internet class is design for you to study cultural diversity in film or stage. This means that we are to look at movies, or theatre productions and evaluate how through film/theatre, people and groups have been represented to our society.

To look at a film/production and see oneself or to see a world that you know nothing about.

In the past, the movie industry and theatre often showed a one-sided view of life. They used stereotypes to represent a group of people in society. However, today, because of the demand of viewers and change in society, the movie industry and theatre represents many cultures, subcultures, and pop cultures.

One of the best movies and your 1st movie evaluation is:

My Big Fat Greek Wedding.

The father in the movie says "......therefore.....we are oranges and you are apples, but we are all fruit"

What movies should you view to understand and evaluate cultural diversity? You may ask. My answer to you is that all movies and plays present some type of culture.

Take the leap and look at a movie or production that may not be of the norm for you but may open your eyes to other lifestyles and cultures.
