STUDENT CONDUCT
No computer use or cell phone use in the classroom. That means LAPTOPS must be turned off. Take notes in a notebook. Cell phones must be turned off or silenced with vibrate off before class begins and put away. No eating in class. Students are expected to bring a spirit of respect and enthusiasm to the class discussions. Students do not need to agree with everything that is expressed, but their responses must be courteous.

ATTENDANCE
This is a highly interactive class, so attendance is mandatory! At the same time, we all know that emergencies do happen. Because of this, no points will be taken off for the first absence from class. Please use this absence very carefully, when you feel sick or for other unexpected emergencies.
The SECOND AND EACH FOLLOWING ABSENCE will reduce the student’s final grade by 5 POINTS EACH. With A TOTAL OF FIVE (5) or more absences the student will get a final grade of F for the class.

Being late: A five-minute grace period is allowed before a student is marked late. Three “late”-s make up one absence. After thirty minutes, a late student is considered absent. Leaving early is considered a “late,” leaving more than 30-minutes early will be considered a missed class.

DEADLINES
In this class students learn professional discipline, as well. Being a successful professional revolves around meeting deadlines. Assignments, exercises, and presentations must be turned in/held on the date due. LATE ASSIGNMENTS will be penalized 15 POINTS for the first three days (starting from the date and time when it was due) and 3 POINTS for each additional day they are late. E.g. If you bring in your project after class, not by the time class starts (when it is due) you will lose the 15 points. No assignment will be accepted after being more than one week late. This is also a fairness issue, since students who are doing the work on time deserve to get better grades than those who are late (i.e. unfairly have more time to finish their projects). There are no make-up quizzes or exams.

ASSIGNMENTS:
For each of these following items a handout will explain the details and the grading

1. Class Presentation: Each student will present a documentary film to the class.
2. Quizzes: 6 quizzes about reading/viewing material (the lowest grade will be dropped)
   Quizzes will be unannounced and held the first 10 minutes of class. There will be no make-up quizzes.
3. Film Festival Paper: You are required to attend the New Orleans Film Festival (October 14-22) for at least one documentary film (or group of short documentary films screening), or panel discussion on documentary, as part of your grade. 4. Essay: One essay about a documentary filmmaker min. 2000 words
5. Final Exam

GRADERS: All projects and exams are 100 points. Your final grade will be calculated using the following formula:

- Class Presentation: 10%
- Quizzes: 20%
- Film Fest paper: 15%
- Essay: 20%
- Final exam: 35%

100 %

Your points for the classes you missed will be deducted from these final points (see attendance).
Scale: A 91-100; B 81-90; C 71-80; D 55-70; F 0-55
Academic Integrity: Academic integrity is fundamental to the process of learning and evaluating academic performance. Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the following: cheating, plagiarism, tampering with academic records and examinations, falsifying identity, and being an accessory to acts of academic dishonesty. Refer to the Student Code of Conduct for further information. The Code is available online at http://www.studentaffairs.uno.edu.

Accommodations: It is University policy to provide, on a flexible and individualized basis, reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in course activities or to meet course requirements.
