FALL 2015
JAZZ HARMONY / THEORY
INSTRUCTOR: STEVE MASAKOWSKI (280-5438)
EMAIL: smasakow@uno.edu
ROOM: PAC 103
DAY/TIME: 2-3:15pm; Monday and Wednesday

COURSE OBJECTIVES: To expand the awareness and improve the musicality of the student by introducing him to contemporary concepts in jazz harmony, theory, ear training, and improvisation.

COURSE OUTCOMES: Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to recognize and transcribe modern jazz music, notate music using current computer technology, as well as demonstrate and communicate modern jazz theoretical concepts to a class of his peers.

COURSE OVERVIEW:

LECTURE: Discussion and demonstration of subjects/concepts, handouts, and assignments.
LISTENING: Recorded examples of subject matter, compositional and improvisational styles of selected jazz masters.
EAR TRAINING: Transcribing, singing, bass lines, chords, forms, Jazz Ear Training by Steve Masakowski (required text and CD), dictation.
PLAYING: Exercises, compositions, arrangements, student projects.
PROJECTS: Transcription and performance of contemporary jazz compositions.

REQUIREMENTS: Your instrument, music notebook/manuscript paper, Jazz Ear Training. Ability to notate assignments on a program of your choice such as Finale, Sibelius, or Muse Score. Internet access utilizing Moodle and email correspondence via your .edu address.

Graduate Students Additional Work:

Graduate students will be required to prepare a 20-30 minute lecture on a subject approved by the teacher and related to jazz theory. You must bring supporting materials such as recordings and handouts, and answer questions presented by the class demonstrating the ability to teach the subject in a convincing matter. Each Graduate student will be assigned a specific date for their presentation. Graduate students will also be called on to demonstrate concepts covered in class.

Attendance: No more than 3 unexcused absences per semester. (Doing extra work and/or assignments determined by the teacher can compensate for excessive absences).

Grading/Evaluation: (0 – 100 pts.)

Weekly assignments (due each week)

Written and playing assignments are due at the beginning of each week. These assignments are not graded but are either accepted or not accepted for credit at the instructor’s discretion.

Final projects (final revisions due on Nov. 23rd)

Students are expected to do a transcription of an unpublished (un-notated) contemporary jazz piece in lead sheet form pre-approved by the instructor. Students will be assigned specific dates so that they may have an opportunity to rehearse and play their projects in class. The student is expected to give an analysis of the piece and background information on the artist. The student must perform and improvise on the piece in a convincing manner. Projects must be notated on Finale (or similar notation program) and will be graded on accuracy and overall output. All corrected projects are due two weeks before the end of the semester for final review and compilation. Students will be presented, at the end of the semester, with a compilation of the projects (fakebook) along with recorded excerpts of the included songs.

Final Exam (by appointment on Dec. 2nd)

The final exam will include a singing test based on the 4109 singing guide.

Subjects covered

- Diatonic chords and modes of the major, melodic and harmonic minor and major scales
- Guide-tone chords and related ranges
- Close, open, UST, quartal, and cluster voicings
- Numerical analysis
- Extended dominants
- Tritone substitutes
- Sub dominant minor chords
- Functional re-harmonization
- Common jazz song forms
- Cycle progression songs
- Backward writing/re-harmonization
- Re-harmonization of standards
- Harmonizing the bee-bop scale
